Route 53 West Corridor Selection Is Protested

The Antioch Village Board Tuesday night voted to protest the state's selection of the west corridor for the extension of Rte. 53 to the Wisconsin line.

Trustees said they still favored the eastern corridor to locate the Rte. 53 extension, and the western-most section in order not to halt the village's growth to the west.

Trustees also expressed concern that the corridor tapped by the state for the highway extension could interfere with a test well near Highview Drive.

Public Works Supt. Charles Maplesworth said the water yield from the test well is satisfactory, and could be in jeopardy if the proposed corridor runs along the route of the well.

It has been suggested that the village go ahead with the improvement. Should the state decide to locate Rte. 53 in the area of the well, the village would be entitled to damages in addition to the expense of test costs.

In other action, the board voted to deny an application by a Wisconsin homeowner to hook into the Antioch sewer and water system.

The homeowner, just across the state line, was willing to pay the cost of making the hook-up, but Supt. Maplesworth reported that the sanitary plant was nearing its capacity and that the village "should take care of its own" before extending any privileges to out of state homeowners.

Trustee Richard H. Radke, supported by George W. Bartlett, proposed that application be denied because of lack of capacity. The motion was adopted unanimously.

Homeowners living near Rock Lake, near Trevor, talked with trustees about the possibility of connecting a sewer line with the Antioch line near the Wisconsin line.

"It is not from one or two offenders as some people would like to believe," she said. "It is from the majority of dwellings that surround Rock Lake, including those hundreds of feet from the shore."

Most homes in the Rock Lake area have septic systems, she said.

Toft told the delegation that it would have to bear the cost of running a sewer line from Rock Lake to the area where the Antioch line ends.

"I don't know if it is legal to hook into a sewer system in another state," the mayor said. Mrs. Tower said she had researched this phase and said it was proper.

I think a sewer line from Rock Lake to Antioch would cost a pile of money," said the mayor.

"We are here primarily on an informational mission," Mrs. Tower pointed out.

Not all of the Wisconsin delegation was behind Mrs. Tower judging from some of the comments.

Wendy Jensen Wins Contest For Activity

This past summer the Antioch Community High School Student Council, which was thinking of their coming fall activities, specifically Homecoming '70, held a contest to choose a theme for this big event.

They put entry blanks in the Advertiser, Antioch News, and Reporter and received quite a few responses. The State Bank of Antioch helped very much by donating a $50 bond to the winner of the contest, which was decided at the August 11 meeting.

After eliminating other fine suggestions the council decided on "Sequoia Commercial Capers," which was sent in by Wendy Jensen, a graduate of Antioch High School.

The $50 bond will be awarded at the Homecoming Bonfire on the night of Oct. 18.

Wool Sewing Contest Entry Deadline Near

Women and girls who like to sew are invited to compete in the 1970-71 Make It Yourself With Wool contest which features a host of prizes, including vacation trips to Europe, college scholarships, and valuable merchandise. Entry blanks and detailed information concerning the contest are available at County Farm Bu-

Judging will be conducted on three levels—district, state, and national. Nine district contests will be held in Illinois.

A contestant may enter only one district competition, but she may model more than one outfit.

The purpose of the Make It Yourself With Wool competition is three-fold: To focus attention on the beauty and versatility of American Wool. To encourage girls to use this fabric in sewing their own smart fashions. To offer young experts the opportunity to compete for valuable prizes and to win recognition for their sewing skills.

4-H Leads The Way To Honor Education

A total of 286 scholarships valued at $168,700 are offered this year to current and former 4-H members. These bring the dollar amount of educational grants given during the last decade to $1.4 million.

Th figures were compiled by the National 4-H Service Committee, Chicago, which obtains funds from private sources.

Some 45 of 60 donors contribute funds for scholarships which range from $300 to $1,600. Each business firm or foundation sponsors a specific program such as safety, or underwrites scholar-

Shorthand Course Is Available

The need for qualified secretaries is greater than ever according to the United States Department of Labor. The need is particularly great in the north suburban area of Chicago due to the growth of industry here.

In order that area residents may take advantage of this need, the College of Lake County will offer a course in touch shorthand this fall for both full-time and part-time students.

Touch shorthand utilizes a small, twenty-three-key machine which prints shorthand notes in English letters on a plain paper tape. Because the keyboard promotes accurate and easy writing skill, the touch shorthand secretary can take dictation in any office and can transcribe with exceptional accuracy and speed.

The class will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30

County Residents Bond Buy $353,392

Lake county residents purchased a total of $353,392 in series E and H bonds and Freedom Shares in July according to Richard F. Kennedy, Waukegan and Richard D. Newland, Waukegan, county chairmen of the savings bonds committee.

Sales in the State of Illinois were $23,425,452 according to Clarence S. Sochowski, North Central market director, U.S. savings bonds division. This is equal to the June total and 7.2 per cent below last July.

The reason for the drop off is the fact that U. S. Savings notes

Physicians interested in attending the dinner lecture may contact the Heart Association of Lake County Medical Society (DE-6-0025). Cocktails will be served at 6 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:45 p.m. The lecture begins at 8:00 p.m.

Antioch Bell Office Payout $2.1 Million

The Antioch office of Illinois Bell Telephone Co. has contributed a total of $2,184,039 to the Illinois economy during the past year.

Al Swan, Antioch manager provided the statistics for the Antioch area.

They include $1,821,845 in wages, $135,209 in property tax payments and $226,985 in other local payments.

Statewide, Illinois Bell put more than a billion dollars into the Illinois economy last year in its efforts to provide, improve and expand telephone service.

Bell System expenditures in Illinois in 1969 totaled $1,256,388,000—2.6 per cent of the total money spent in Illinois last year as measured by the state's personal income.

Much of the money went for new and expanded buildings, cable and equipment, wages, taxes and other goods and services needed to meet Illinois' rapidly growing need for telephone service.

The money was spent by Illinois Bell Telephone, Western Electric Company, the Long Lines Department of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., Bell Telephone Laboratories and Southwestern Bell Telephone. (Southwestern Bell serves 10 telephone exchanges in parts of six counties in downstate Illinois.)

The Bell System's 1969 construction expenditures for buildings and outside telephone plant in Illinois totaled $120,728,000. This was 5 per cent of the total non-residential construction, including public works and utilities in Illinois last year.

Bell System employees in Illinois totaled 73,361—about 2 per cent of the state's total non-farm employment at the end of last year—and they received a total payroll of $627,689,000. Of those employees, 40,370 worked for Illinois Bell in 1969. (Illinois Bell now employs 44,200.)

About 3 per cent—$125,300,000—of the state and local taxes collected in Illinois last year came from the Bell System, including $105,365,000 paid by Illinois Bell. Western Electric bought $196.

Nixon Aiding McClory

President Richard Nixon, writing from the Western White House at San Clemente, California, has expressed his support for the re-election of Congressman Robert McClory in the November elections. In his letter of August 28, 1970, to Congressman McClory, the President stated:

"I hardly need to remind you of the importance of this year's election. America is at a key point in her history, and we must have the best available men and women in Congress if we are to continue making progress as a free nation.

"The American people deserve the best representation. The men who speak in their behalf should share their hopes and dreams for their families and for future generations. You have given this kind of leadership to the people of Illinois' 12th District and I have every hope that the voters of your district will reaffirm their support for you this November.

"With best personal regards, Sincerely, Richard Nixon." McClory observed that the first half of President Nixon's term

Questionable Juvenile Sales Tactics

Chicagoland businesses and the public have been flooded recently with crews of boys, between the ages of 10 and 14, selling either candy or cookies for as much as $2.00. Whenever they are in a boys club area, some of the youths imply the profits benefit the local club.

However, when questioned further, they admit the club isn't the local one and that their club hasn't yet been formed. Other solicitors wear a cardboard button which states the product is being sold by a for-profit corporation, with a portion of the profit allegedly going to the boys themselves.

A few legitimate charities, even some established boys' club, raise funds through product sales. Nevertheless, BBB/Chicago believes the utilization of juveniles by a profit-making corporation to sell products by teaching them how to deceive the public is reprehensible and considered not in the public interest.

Whenever in doubt, check with your local organization or BBB-CHICAGO.

EDITORIAL

Decision For Smut

Government commission sometimes serve a useful purpose.

But we think the President's Commission on Pornography has flipped its collective wig.

The Commission is recommending the repeal of all legal restrictions prohibiting adults from buying or possessing pornography while at the same time recommending laws against exposure of children to obscene pictures and a nationwide "sex re-education" program.

How can you possibly let adults buy pornography and not expect the kids to get their hands on it?

How can you regulate a movie theater owner who shows such trash from letting youngsters in?

In our opinion, it just can't be done.

The Commission, it was reported, is basing its recommendations on findings that pornography does not cause sex crimes or harm individuals.

It also states that there is no public consensus to support such laws and they sometimes lead to suppression of legitimate material.

We agree that legitimate material should not be suppressed and that censorship should be kept at the bare minimum. But we also say that there must be a standard to apply.

If the Commission thinks that pornography does not cause sex crimes, the members should cover a police beat sometime. That would certainly open their eyes.

We agree that some of the present laws are senseless and the U.S. Supreme Court has only made matters worse by not taking a firm stand on pornography.

But some law has to be on the books or the sellers of smut will have an open house celebration with the commission members as their honored guests.

Some of the members of the commission are reported to be writing a dissent from the recommendations.

We applaud that action.

We didn't think that all of the members would be so stupid as to give a blanket endorsement to smut.

Band Together

Nine cities recently took the first step to combat violence and terrorism that seems to be rampant across our country these days.

We applaud that action.

They maintain that the Justice Department is withholding information which the cities need and asked that such practices be halted.

We agree.

If any department has information on bombings, violence or terrorism it should be passed around to the various communities so they can better fight such factions.

It is incredible to us that a federal authority would withhold such information.

Fuller access to such information would in several cases have brought to a speedier end the solving of these crimes that has struck, particularly in the midwest.

The cities combining their forces are Omaha, Lincoln, Denver, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Tulsa, Sioux City, Des Moines and Madison.

It would seem to us that other cities would join the group and present a united front against the culprits who are trying to burn and bomb our society.

We hope they do.

has been handicapped by a top-heavy Democrat majority in the U. S. House and Senate. He commented further that in the 1970 campaign principal efforts have been directed toward electing 7 U. S. Senators to replace 7 Democrats (which would give the Republicans a bare majority in the Senate). However, all House and Senate races are related directly to the question of party control of the 92nd Congress which convenes January 7, 1971.

Congressman McClary, a ranking Republican on the House Judiciary Committee, is seeking his fifth term as a U. S. Representative for Illinois' 12th District—comprising Lake and McHenry Counties and Barrington and Hanover Townships in Cook County.

Your Congressman
Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

A recent publication of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights details the deep-seated prejudice against Mexican-Americans in the Southwest. The so-called "Chicanos" experience discrimination in education, housing, public accommodations, and other areas—at the hands of the usually fairer-skinned "Anglos."

Mexican-Americans and other Spanish-speaking Americans have settled in many other parts of the country—including our 12th Congressional District. According to a recent report of the U. S. Office of Education, no less than seven school districts—stretching from Waukegan in Lake County to Marengo on the western edge of McHenry County—have Spanish language pupil populations of five per cent or more. Puerto Ricans—who, incidentally, are fully accredited American citizens at birth—appear to make up the largest single group of Spanish-speaking Americans in our Congressional District.

In order that the children from these homes (where the Spanish language predominates) may be able to advance with their classmates, special English language instruction will be inaugurated in the seven school districts. However, more than language training is needed.

A recent evaluation study sponsored by the Office of Economic Opportunity disclosed particular shortcomings in Lake County Community Action Programs in which projects designed to benefit Blacks and other minority groups appear to have bypassed most of the disadvantaged Puerto Rican and Mexican-Americans.

One of the brightest spots in the dilemma confronting Spanish-speaking Americans is the privately sponsored English Language School for Adults (ELSA) which was developed some months ago under the leadership of Waukegan's Mayor, Robert Sabonjian; the Chairman of the Latin American Advisory Council, Edwin Montano; and other civic leaders and educators. The program provides a 16-week course for Spanish-speaking adult citizens in quarters furnished by the Waukegan School Board. It has enjoyed dramatic success.

The related problems of migratory workers and their families also affect our 12th Congressional District. Headstart Programs for the smaller children of such migrant workers has been provided in our area.

Despite the common problems of discrimination which Spanish-speaking Americans experience, there is dissension among the different elements which form this category of citizens. Mexican-Americans do not always see "eye-to-eye" with Puerto Ricans and vice versa. However, this internal strife should not contribute to any lessening of public concern with the broader problem.

Recently, President Nixon is-

The contest is divided into three divisions: A junior division for girls from 14 to 16 years old; a senior division for 17 to 21 year olds; and an adult division for those over 21.

The top winner in the junior or senior division of the Illinois contest will represent the state at the national Make It Yourself With Wool finals in Las Vegas, Nev., on Jan. 19, 1971. The top prize in the national contest will be trips to Europe for the junior and senior division winners.

The annual wool fabric sewing contest is sponsored in Illinois by state and county Farm Bureau Women's Committees, the American Wool Council, the Women's Auxiliary to the National Wool Growers Association, and the Illinois Purebred Sheep Breeders Association.

State finals of the contest will be held November 17 in Chicago in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association. The state winners will be announced following a public style show at the conclusion of a conference for Farm Bureau women.

More GI's Enrolled In College

Current G. I. Bill trainees are more likely to be enrolled at the college level than were their counterparts under the World War II and Korean Conflict G. I. Bills, according to the Veterans Administration.

Commenting on a recent VA study of the education level of the nation's veterans, John B. Naser, director of VA's Regional Office in Chicago, said only 54 per cent of the 7,800,000 World War II veterans who trained under the original G.I. Bill, had completed high school prior to military service.

This compares with 56 per cent of the Korean Conflict veterans (service between June 27, 1950, and Jan. 31, 1955) and 70 per cent of the Vietnam Era veterans (service after Aug. 4, 1964) who were high school graduates when they entered service.

Naser said more recent statistics show an even larger percentage of recently separated Vietnam veterans had completed high school at the time of their separation—over 80 per cent for those separated in the past two years. Another comparison, he said, revealed that about 66 per cent of the current G.I. Bill trainees were high school graduates when they entered training, and another 11 per cent had completed four or more years of College.

The VA director also pointed out that although 53 per cent of the current G.I. Bill trainees had less than half time are not eligible for these additional benefits, he explained. Naser urged veterans interested in applying for educational benefits to contact their nearest VA office.

Dixon Raps Governor

State Senator Alan J. Dixon of Belleville, the Democratic candidate for Illinois state treasurer, told Lake County Democratic Central Committeemen that the Ogilvie Administration accomplished more budgetwise in two years than all other state administrations in the 150 years since Illinois was admitted to the Union.

Senator Dixon said: "In 150 years the largest budget ever assembled by any of the Governors and approved by any of the legislatures during the century and a half, was a $4.7 billion budget in the last two years of the Kerner-Shapiro administration."

"But in the two years since the Ogilvie Administration took office," Senator Dixon said, "this administration doubled that budget. For 1969 and 1970 the Ogilvie budget totalled $9.5 billion."

"In other words," Senator Dixon said, "the Ogilvie Administration did more to increase this state's budget in two years than all of the Governors in all of the sessions of the Legislature in the last 150 years."

Senator Dixon said this point was relevant because August 26 Illinois was celebrating its 152nd year since it was admitted to the Union as a state.

The Senator said his staff is now collecting data from the U.S. Department of Commerce to show how federal, state and local taxes are decreasing an average family of four's annual income of $7,600. He pointed out that while this state's taxes are at an all-time high, the inflated costs of living are eroding the purchasing power of every citizen of Illinois.

"When you consider that gross income for an average family of four," Senator Dixon said, "the payment of federal income tax and federal gasoline and excise taxes reduce that $7,600 to about $6,300."

"Now comes the state of Illinois with the Ogilvie income tax and all the other tax increases sought by the Ogilvie Administration and approved by the Republican dominated General Assembly," Senator Dixon said.

Included in those new taxes are higher gasoline taxes, higher diesel fuel taxes, higher taxes on alcoholic beverages, higher taxes on cigarettes and cigars, higher fees for our auto license plates and increases in the truck license fees, he said.

"The payment of locally assessed personal and real property taxes further reduces that gross income to about $5,400," he said.

"That means that of the original $7,600, about 44% is paid for federal, state and local taxes," Senator Dixon said. "And these are paid before you get to the necessities of buying food, paying your mortgage or clothing your family."

Smith Asks Fiscal Restraint

U. S. Senator Ralph Tyler Smith (R-Ill.) has called for fiscal restraint in Congress to backstop President Nixon's anti-inflationary economic policies.

"I think President Nixon has succeeded in turning the corner in the battle against inflation," said Smith. "It is obvious he has just put us back on the road to price stability without triggering a full-blown recession."

In a Springfield press conference, Smith, cited last week's encouraging economic developments as proof that Nixon's anti-inflation strategy was taking hold. He referred to the decline in the government's wholesale price index—the first downward movement in more than two years—and a slowdown in some of the cost-of-living increases coupled with increased productivity.

"Although President Nixon has succeeded in putting the economy back on the right track, Congress could be the main culprit in causing a derailment," said Smith. "Congress must exercise fiscal restraint, for in the final analysis its actions have the greatest single impact on market conditions, wages and prices."

Smith said that President Nixon inherited an "inflationary mess" when he took office. He said the President was faced with almost $38 billion in federal deficits.

"It was the irresponsible spending policies of the previous administration and a Democrat-controlled Congress, which triggered the inflationary cycle that is now being halted by President Nixon," Smith said.

Smith said he was concerned by the predictions of some economists that the federal deficit for the fiscal year which began last July 1 might hit $10 billion. He said the administration last May anticipated a deficit of $1.3 billion for the current fiscal year, but there was little chance it could be held that low.

"Congress seems determined to put inflated price tags on almost all of the President's budget requests," said Smith. "But thus far it has shown little inclination to come up with the additional revenue to offset higher spending. It is part of the strategy of the Democratic leadership in Congress to try to embarrass President Nixon by leaving him no other course of action but to veto bills which have been inflated for purely political reasons."

Smith said that while the Democratic Congressional leadership has been carping about a 5 per cent unemployment rate, it has neglected to mention that average unemployment was 6.7 per cent in 1961, 5.5 per cent in 1962, 5.7 per cent in 1963 and 5.2 per cent in 1964. He said that only after the Johnson Administration stepped up draft calls and sent thousands of additional troops to Viet-

School Brings More Woes For Drivers

Next to disease, traffic accidents kill more children between one and 14 years of age than any other cause. More than half (51 per cent) of these child fatalities were pedestrians. Watch out for children when you drive, reminds the Lake County Safety Commission.

Children crossing or entering a roadway not at an intersection is the most dangerous practice. Careful drivers watch for children crossing in midblock or dashing from behind parked cars. School opening increases this hazard.

If you are a defensive driver, you will expect the unexpected from small fry and slow down when children are present. Remember, Illinois law requires you to drive only 20 mph through school zones when signs are posted on school days.

Remember, that child dashing into the street from behind a parked car presents one of the most difficult accidents to avoid. Here is a tip that will help you to miss that thoughtless youngster. Look under those parked cars at the curb for a pair of little feet. If you see them, slow down and come almost to a stop before passing that parked car.

The defensive driver will treat all children on or near the street or highway as caution signs. Remember, says the Safety Commission, there is no substitute for constant attention to your driving at all times and especially where children are present.

nam did unemployment drop below 5 per cent.

"In moving the country from a wartime to a peacetime economy, the President has cut defense spending to a point where its percentage of the total budget is the lowest since 1950," Smith said.

He also pointed out that the Nixon Administration is allocating 42 per cent of its budget for human resources as opposed to 37 per cent for defense.

The number isn't important. But the variety is. Because it means that more of our customers can use their telephones comfortably and conveniently.

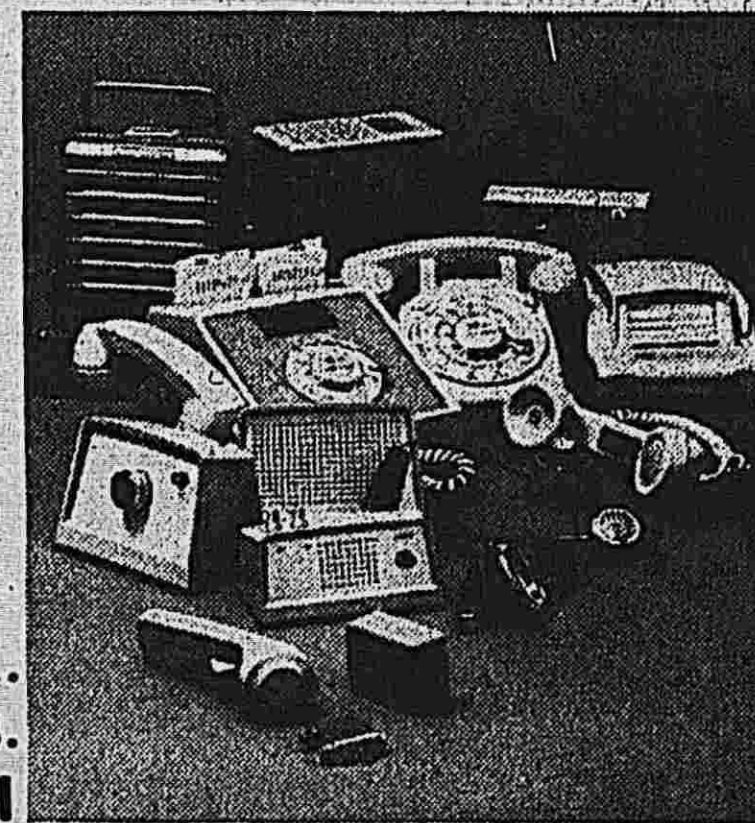

Illinois Bell has developed a wide range of special services and equipment to help handicapped people communicate.

We've designed phones with signals you can see to replace the telephone bell for the deaf... volume control phones for the hard-of-hearing... and even an electronic larynx which permits people with impaired vocal cords to talk over the telephone.

Some of our regular equipment—like speakerphones and automatic dialers—can help people who are blind, paralyzed or bedfast.

And if a customer has a special problem, our engineers will do their best to design special equipment.

But there are some problems we haven't even heard about. So if you know someone who has a physical handicap which interferes with his use of the phone, please call us at 727-4421. Or call collect from the suburbs. We want to help.  Illinois Bell

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Standards for judging the true value and substantiality of the things mankind desires are set forth in the Lesson-Sermon on Substance to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, September 13.

One of the Bible quotations is from Paul's letter to Timothy, in which he wrote, "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy."

A citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, reads:

"To himself, mortal and material man seems to be substance, but his sense of substance involves error and therefore is material, temporal. On the other hand, the immortal, spiritual man is really substantial, and reflects the eternal substance, or Spirit, which mortals hope for. He reflects the divine, which constitutes the only real and eternal entity."

A late registration fee of $3.00 will be charged in addition to the usual tuition and fees.

Two Win Degrees

Two Antioch area students were among the summer graduating class of 1,700 who received degrees on Sept. 5 at commencement exercises on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

They were Richard Lee Van Haecke, of 203 Grand Avenue, Lake Villa, and Gary Edward Obrokia, of 625 Mill Road, Wildwood.

Variety Of Courses Available

Dr. R. Ernest Dear, Dean of Instruction at the College of Lake County, pointed out that in addition to the regular courses offered for the fall semester, a wide variety of continuing education courses is available to residents of the district.

For example, in the area of art, the following courses are scheduled: Seminar for Artists, Commercial Design, Drawing, and Ceramics. Conversational and advanced conversational sections are available in French, German, and Spanish.

In the business field, a professional course for legal secretaries is scheduled for Tuesday nights; Law Trust & Taxation is scheduled for Thursdays; and Data Processing for the Layman will be offered on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Interior decorating, an extremely popular course during the past two semesters, will be repeated on Wednesday nights, and in the insurance field, two courses, Fundamentals of Life and Health Insurance and Group Life Insurance, Pension, and Health, will be offered on Saturday mornings.

All of these classes will be offered in the evenings, with the exception of the insurance combination, and fees range from $19.50 to $29.25, depending upon the length of the course.

Classes will meet for the first time on Monday, September 14, 1970. Students may register during the late registration period of September 14 through September 18 on the College campus between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

Book Firm Will Change Promotion

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott said today that through the efforts of his "Mod Squad"—a group of students working in his Consumer Fraud and Protection Division this summer—a national encyclopedia company has agreed to change its methods of sale, promotion, and advertising.

Attorney General Scott said that two of his Mod Squad members, John Friedman, a senior at the University of Wisconsin, and Marty Soll, a junior in the DePaul College of Law, conducted the three-month investigation which led to an agreement by the company to change its business practices.

Representatives of the New York and Chicago offices of P. F. Collier, Inc., a subsidiary of Crowell, Collier, and MacMillan, Inc., have signed an assurance of voluntary compliance with changes ordered by the Illinois Attorney General's office, according to Howard Kaufman, chief of Scott's Consumer Division.

Friedman and Soll answered a Collier ad promising a $140-a-week salary for encyclopedia salesmen. After a three-day training course, they found that the jobs actually were paid on a commission basis.

Kaufman alleged that during the three-day course, salesmen were taught a misleading sales pitch which involved telling families they had been especially selected to receive a "free" set of "entirely new" encyclopedia that would not be on sale for several months. The customer was required to write a letter of comment on the set, and to keep it up to date with yearbook supplements. The supplements, however, cost about $600, and payments could not, as the company represented, be spread over a 10-year period.

In the voluntary compliance agreement signed by Collier, the encyclopedia company has agreed to stop misleading advertising promising a salary to their salesmen. It has agreed to revise its retail sales installment contract to conform with Illinois statutes, and to register with the state as an out-of-state corporation doing business in Illinois.

Lastly, the encyclopedia firm has agreed to stop the offer of a "free" set of encyclopedias which actually cost $600.

Attorney General Scott warned consumers to be wary of similar sales practices on the part of other companies.

Scott, Page Set Program For Schools

A new legal education program for Illinois schools, jointly sponsored by Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott and State Superintendent of Schools Ray Page, will be explained to teachers in 10 regional workshops to be held throughout the state this fall.

The workshops will be conducted by Page's Consumer Education Division, and will begin September 28 and continue through December 8.

Speakers will include Howard R. Kaufman, Chief of Scott's Consumer Fraud and Protection Bureau, and Edward M. Vass, Scott's administrative assistant who is acting as the Attorney General's coordinator for the legal education program.

Scott proposed the legal education program during his successful campaign for Attorney General in 1968. He urged that Illinois public school students be taught their rights and responsibilities under the law in a program designed to show young people that the law protects not only their lives, but also, all of their individual freedoms.

With Page's cooperation, the legal education program will begin this fall with three pilot projects in schools throughout the state. In addition to consumer protection, the new program will deal with such areas as criminal justice, delinquency and drug control, taxes, and air and water pollution control.

The 10 teacher workshops will be held: Sept. 28, Dixon High School, Dixon; Oct. 5, Deerfield High School, Deerfield; Oct. 6, Hinsdale Central High School, Hinsdale; Oct. 13, Kankakee East-ridge High School, Kankakee; Oct. 28, Champaign Central High School, Champaign; Nov. 3, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville; Nov. 4, Effingham High School, Effingham; Nov. 15, Marion Senior High School, Marion; Nov. 23, Galesburg Senior High School, Galesburg; Dec. 8, (tentative) Jacksonville High School, Jacksonville.

Drummond To Head Music Center

Norman Drummond will begin a one year term as President of the Board of Trustees of the Music Center of Lake County this month.

Originally from Columbus, Ohio, and a graduate of Ohio State University, Drummond came to Waukegan in 1959 as an employee of the Lake County Planning Commission. He was director of that organization for the latter three and a half years. Currently self-employed as a City Planning Consultant, the new President of the Board of the Music Center lives at 450 Ridgeland Ave., Waukegan with his wife Gloria and their two daughters.

Drummond will divide his busy schedule between his City Planning duties, the Music Center of Lake County and his yachting hobby.

The Music Center of Lake County is situated at Lilac Cottage, Bowen Park, 1917 N. Sheridan Road, Waukegan. A not-for-profit fine arts school, the Center philosophy is that The Arts Should Be Made Available to Everyone, Regardless of Income.

Real Estate Course Plans Morning Class

Classes will meet on four consecutive Wednesdays, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge, 9333 Skokie Blvd., Skokie. Frank Lynn, Jr., Chicago real estate broker and lawyer, will teach the course, which is sponsored by Real Estate Education Corporation, 500 N. Dearborn St., Chicago. The Preparatory Course readies men and women for the State license examinations for real estate salesmen and brokers. In addition to the four weekday sessions, students can attend an All-Day Review Session given by the Corporation on the Saturday preceding the monthly Illinois State exams.

Mrs. Everett Queen.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Geraldine Amundsen, Mrs. Karen Ring, Mrs. Dorothy Morgan and Mrs. Mary Lou Roberts.

Two Killed When Struck By Auto

Two Chicago women were killed last Thursday when a driver lost control of his auto and struck them in the driveway of the John P. Laffey home, 123 Maple Drive, Channel Lake Shores.

Dead are Mrs. Anne E. Butler, 66, and Grace K. Link, 66, both of Chicago.

Mrs. Butler was dead on arrival at Antioch Clinic and Mrs. Link died later in Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan. Mrs. Mary C. Laffey, 67, was injured and treated at Victory and released.

Police said Laffey, 70, was attempting to drive his car out of a ditch as the three women were walking across the driveway. The auto lurched forward and struck them.

Coronary Courses Are Set

Four coronary care workshops for registered nurses in Illinois will be offered during the 1970-71 academic year by the University of Illinois College of Nursing, 845 S. Damen Ave. The first workshop begins Nov. 2.

Supported by a $46,674 grant from the Illinois Department of Public Health, each workshop will offer four weeks of tuition-free training. Enrollment will be limited to 20 nurses each workshop.

Classroom instruction will be provided in the College of Nursing's new 13-story building at the U. of I. Medical Center Campus, with clinical instruction scheduled for several Chicago area coronary care units, including Weiss Memorial Hospital, 4646 Marine Dr.

Students will be taught the use of multi-media instructional systems and will participate in nursing care seminars.

"The workshops are designed to enhance the competency of Illinois nurses functioning in the physician-nurse approach of coronary care units," said Cecelia Fennessy, RN, assistant professor of nursing in charge of the workshops. Nurses attending the workshops must be nominated by an Illinois hospital with a coronary care unit currently operating or soon to open. "The nurses must be highly motivated and have a commitment to return to their sponsoring hospital's coronary care unit," Miss Fennessy said.

Stipends to cover some living expenses may be obtained by nurses who must change their residence during the workshop. Housing information may be arranged through the College of Nursing.

The four-week workshops will be offered during the following weeks: Nov. 2 through 27; Jan. 4-29; March 1-26 and May 3-28.

14 States To Be Inspected By Government

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced today that it plans to place poultry plants doing business wholly within each of 14 states under Federal poultry inspection, under provision of the Wholesale Poultry Products Act.

The states are: Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and West Virginia.

USDA said officials in the 14 states were notified in July (press release USDA 2223-70) that unless they could provide evidence that deficiencies in laws, regulations, funding and staffing could be overcome in time to have an adequate state inspection system operating by Aug. 18, 1971, it would be necessary to take over inspection of their interstate poultry plants. Most of the 14 states requested Federal inspection or indicated they did not feel there was enough poultry business in their states to warrant establishing inspection systems.

USDA also announced today it is granting Indiana a one-year extension for completion of a poultry inspection program at least equal to the Federal one.

USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service, which administers the Federal poultry inspection programs, said it will be necessary to survey each non-Federally inspected plant in the 14 states to be placed under Federal inspection to determine staffing needs and what corrective measures—if any—plants must take to meet USDA requirements.

The nature of operations in each plant will then be determined, officials said. Following the surveys, inspection personnel must be hired, trained, and integrated into the existing Federal inspection system, they added.

Plants which do not meet minimum Federal inspection requirements will not be permitted to operate until corrective measures have been taken, C&MS said.

The Wholesale Poultry Products Act, which became effective Aug. 18, 1968, gave each state two years to establish an inspection system for plants operating wholly within the state. The state system must be at least equal to Federal inspection which covers plants operating in interstate or foreign commerce. The Act authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to grant a state a one-year extension if the state shows significant progress toward meeting the requirements.

USDA announced last month that the poultry inspection systems in California, New Mexico and South Carolina are at least equal to the current Federal inspection system. Today's announcement means 33 states and Puerto Rico will have another year in which to develop inspection "at least equal" to Federal requirements.

Harris Overall 1970 I.R.A. Winner

Records and rain ended the 1970 Season of Interstates Racing Association activities in Wisconsin over the Labor Day weekend as the all time attendance record was broken at the Kenosha County Speedway at Wilmot on Saturday night for the third time this year and then rain forced cancellation of the Lake Geneva Championship race on Sunday night.

No rain date had been set for the Lake Geneva Raceway date but to the 4470 fans who saw the Saturday night racing at Wilmot it will seem like a long winter till the return of the Supers of the Seventies to Wilmot in May of 1971. Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, was declared the overall IRA and Wilmot champion of 1970 even before the first heat race and then went on to prove his title, by winning both of the 50 lap championship race events.

Harris started 16th of 18 cars in the first 50 and took over the lead on the 39th lap after a thrilling duel with Jim Sullivan of Fox Lake. Sullivan had started 3rd and charged hard right at the start but couldn't get around second place driver Bill Klein, Burlington, until the 19th lap and then needed only two more laps before getting by Larry Leach, Elkhorn who had led from the start. Tom Anderson, Lake Villa, started 14th and drove the most spectacular race as he worked his way into third behind Eddie Loomis who had been second since the previous lap. Anderson moved around Loomis on the 16th lap and would have been a sure leader but the rear end on his car went out on the 20th lap. In the second 50 lap race, Harris started 11th and took the lead from Jim Bozeman, Waukegan, on the 14th lap. Don Sorce, West Allis, led from his pole starting spot, for the first 10 laps with Roger Otto, Burlington, putting on a spectacular effort to take the lead. It was Bozeman who finally led for just three laps before Harris took over. Harris had earlier won the fast 10 lap heat and placed 5th in time trials to earn a total of $1047 including lap prize money, from the record purse.

Lap leaders and their record earnings were Jim Sullivan, $470; Jim Bozeman, $355; Larry Leach, $285; and Don Sorce, $255.

Heat race winners each earned $100 for their victories. They were Jr. Dodd, Waukegan; John Shum, Greendale; Anderson and Harris. Ray Dropp, Palatine won the 15 lap semi feature.

In Sportsman stock car events, Jack Aschenbrenner won the 15 lap feature and Lee Fernandez won the 10 lap semi. Heats were won by Lew Lunsford, Dave Zilmer and Al Lundberg.

Sullivan Wins 30 Lap Feature

Jim Sullivan, Fox Lake, turned the tables on IRA Champions for the second time in a week and won the 30 lap feature race at the Santa Fe Speedway. It was his fourth feature win of the 1970 season and followed his win in the feature at the Kenosha County Speedway last Saturday night.

Sullivan took the lead from four time Champion Roger Otto, Burlington, on the 26th lap and in winning this single IRA race date at this track, ruined the chances for IRA point leader Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, to claim top spot at all IRA tracks for 1970. Harris had clinched the Championship at Wilmot, Waukegan, Raceway Park and Lake Geneva. Harris' car was damaged in a previous heat race when he collided with Bill Bohn, Kenosha, when he spun and his car did not handle up to top form for the remainder of the night.

Al Schill, Franksville, set fast time of 15.25 seconds averaging 65.60 mph on the expertly prepared quarter mile oval, but his car was the first to drop out of the feature race. A massive seven car pile up on the 16th lap brought out the red flag. Ken Monroe, Pell Lake, was second at this time but slipped back to 5th at the end.

Eddie Loomis, Waukesha, won the trophy dash and 10 lap heat races were won by John Olson, Round Lake; Otto, Jr. Dodd, Waukegan and Ray Faulkner, Libertyville.

Twenty-five cars made the journey to Santa Fe and brought out a crowd estimated at more than 2000 fans to watch the closest racing of the season on the IRA Circuit of Supers which wound up its season at Wilmot and Lake Geneva over the Labor Day weekend. A 50 lap Championship Race will end all activities for the year at Raceway Park in Blue Island on Sunday night, Sept. 13. On that same day Harris will compete in the 250 mile ISAC stock car race at Milwaukee and the hurry to wind up the year at Raceway Park that night.

Harris Tops Wilmot Point Standings

WILMOT, WIS.—Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, won his fourth, fifth and sixth Track Championships with two impressive victories in twin 50 lap Championship races at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Saturday, Sept. 5, 1970. Harris' previous track titles had been earned at Wilmot in 1965, Lake Geneva in 1966 and Waukegan in 1967. In addition to Wilmot, he has also won at these same three tracks this year and leads the Raceway Park, Blue Island Speedway point standings and will hope to clinch that title in a 50 lap race there on Sunday night, Sept. 13. That will end a busy day and busy year for Harris. He will compete that day in the 250 mile USAC late model stock car race in Milwaukee driving a 1970 Camaro.

In addition to the above, Harris also leads and has clinched the overall IRA Championship for 1970 and will pick up the top check from a sizeable point fund at the IRA's Annual Banquet and Awards Party at the Antioch Country Club on Saturday, Oct. 24.

Whitey Harris Wins 1970 Championship At Lake Geneva

Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, has won the Lake Geneva Raceway's 1970 Championship for modified stock cars even though the final race was cancelled due to rain on Sunday, Sept. 6. Rain prevented Harris from perhaps also capturing the title for the greatest number of wins in the 1970 season.

That honor still goes to Al Schill, Franksville, but there is one more race remaining on the schedule for IRA and that will be at the Raceway Park, Blue Island track Sunday, Sept. 13, and Harris will have to have at least one win there to tie the mark and a second to gain the advantage.

Pistol Championships Has Record Numbers

CAMP PERRY, Ohio—A record field showed up here at the beginning of August for the annual slugfest with handguns to determine the national three-gun champ. And it was an interesting one.

For example Bill Blankenship, Columbus, Ga., a top flight Army competitor for years, was entered for the first time as a civilian; Air Force Maj. Frank Green now stationed at Chanute Field, Ill., was back after a year's absence; Sallie Carroll, Spokane, an Army major returned.

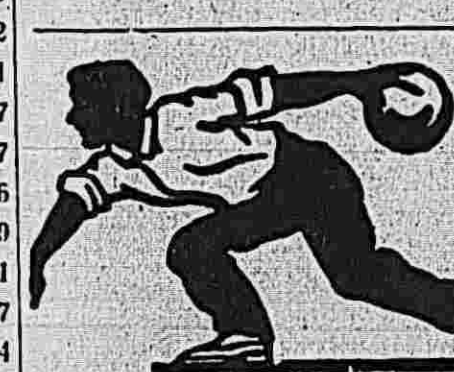

Included in the record entry list of 719 competitors (an increase of nearly 10 per cent over last year) were Jimmy Clark of Shreveport, La., the last civilian to win the national title (he did it in 1958) and Huelet (Joe Benner, Tampa, Fla., who, like Blankenship, has won the open crown six times).

Missing from action this year was Trude Schlerntzauer, Lowell, Mich., who had beaten the ladies for two straight years. The race for honors in all categories was close, with the exception of the women, right from the start.

Green took an early lead by winning the .22 caliber aggregate with a sharp 891-point performance, but he couldn't maintain the pace and Marine WO Francis Higginson of Placerville, Calif., moved on top at the end of the Center Fire matches.

Once at the head of the pack Higginson wouldn't be headed and he emerged as the first Marine to capture the Open Championship since Bill McMillan of the Marines turned the trick in 1967, posting final aggregate of 2625 points.

And McMillan was on hand to congratulate Higginson. The former champion is now a Lieutenant.

Bowlers Are Needed

Bowlers are needed for some leagues at the Antioch Bowling Lanes, Inc.
The 6:45 p.m. Friday Men's Handicap League, the Friday 9:15 p.m. Mixed League and the Sunday 7 p.m. Mixed League are among those needing bowlers.

ant Colonel and Commanding Officer of the Marine Corps Marksmanship group.

They are the only members of the Corps to win the pistol title since three-gun competition began in 1936.

The Marines had to share team honors with the Army, however, the soldiers captured the .22 and center fire events with scores of 1175 and 1171 points.

The Marines paced McMillan and Higginson, took first in the team aggregate and the .45 caliber match.

But, the surprise of the team matches was a civilian quartet from the Georgia State Association.

Led by Blankenship and Ralph O. Thompson, West Point, Ga., who had been teammates in the Army, the group narrowly lost the .22 match by one point and the .45 competition by the same margin.

Their steady shooting earned them second place in the grand aggregate, the highest placing by a civilian team since the national matches were resumed following World War II.

In the battle for police honors defending champion Elwynn Burnett, a state trooper from East Lansing, Mich., had a horrible day with the .22 matches and although he came back strongly was unable to overtake Allan Arrington, a highway patrolman from Charlotte, N. C.

Arrington finished with 2607 only six more than Burnett.

The civilian championship had a familiar ring with Blankenship and Thompson who had fought head-to-head as servicemen for national honors many times, battling it out right down to the wire.

Thompson led from the beginning but Blankenship came through with the .45 to overtake him and take his first title as a civilian with 2636 points.

Navy Reservist Don Hamilton, Wollaston, Mass., who was the defending open champion, finished as the high reservist and runnerup to Higginson with 2640 points.

Carroll had little trouble winning her fourth women's crown with 2578 points and the top Guardsman was Army SSG Stuart Clingman, Guernsey, Wyo., with 2620 points.

For the second straight year the handgunners were blessed with excellent weather. What little wind there was did not bother the marksmen and more than a dozen finished with scores of 2630 or better, a rather phenomenal outcome for Perry competition, where scores are historically low.

The handgun phase of the National Championships wound up with the National Trophy matches.

The Marines continued their winning ways by taking the team competition with 1149 points followed by the Army with 1141 and in third place there was that Georgia State team again with 1135 points.

Army SSG Arthur D. White, Williams, Ariz., outdistanced everyone in the individual match with a very fine 296-point effort, followed by Higginson with 294.

matches were the firing of the annual Mayleigh Cup Postal Team Match and a special awards ceremony conducted by the National Rifle Association.

The 10-man U.S. squad, picked from the high scores in the .22 caliber Slow Fire match, fired a score of 2814 points out of a possible 3000. The outcome of the match will not be known until the other countries participating fire the event.

The individual members of the U.S. team and their scores were: WO-1 Francis Higginson USMC 282-7; James Daugherty (Police), 275-2; Maj. Franklin C. Green USAF, 288-10; Lt. Col. William McMillan, USMC, 278-9; SFC Paul Spavor, USAF, 281-7; Allen W. Arrington (Police), 282-5; Frank Wukovits, 277-7; SFC Sgt. Harland, Reynolds, USA, 290-5.

Robert Brehm and Jerry Litherland were alternate firing members of the team. Gil Hebard was the team adjutant and John H. Johnson was the team captain. The firing of the U.S. team was witnessed by Donald A. Jones.

The Mayleigh Challenge Cup Match is an International Postal Team Match which is sponsored annually by the National Rifle Association. The cup is of sterling silver and is 22 inches wide. It was donated by 22 caliber pistol shooters of Great Britain and was entered for competition in 1947.

The USA will award 14 silver medals to winning team members and 14 bronze medals to the second-place team. Each team consists of 10 firing members, two alternates and a captain and adjutant for each nation invited to participate by the National Rifle Association. The team captain and adjutant may be firing members of the team. The record targets are mailed to each country entering the match and they must be returned to the National Rifle Association for official scoring.

The course is five shots on each of four standard American 20 yard slow fire pistol targets with .22 caliber pistol or revolver. The only change in the above rules was made in 1958 when the official target was changed to the Standard 50 yard American target.

The Mayleigh Cup has been won by teams from the United States nearly each year. In 1959 it was won by the Canadian Team. In 1948 and in 1950 the

Kladis Wins Feature

WAUKEGAN, Ill.—George Kladis of Chicago led a stellar field of midget auto racers Friday night at the Waukegan Speedway in the only appearance of the tiny cars for 1970 at Waukegan. Kladis stole the lead from Aaron Willis of Joliet in the 35th lap and avoided a five car tangle two laps later to win the 40 lap feature.

Kladis is the son of Danny Kladis, one of the most famous local midget drivers. The elder Kladis ran in the first afternoon of racing ever at Waukegan when the midgets took to the clay track in 1949. George drove the Jack Schenk Falcon out of Chicago, also winning the second heat race.

The pits were swelled with 41 midgets, 39 of which qualified for the racing events. The races attracted cars from five states (Continued on page seven) match was not fired and the rest of the matches have been won by the United States teams.

In 1969 teams from countries of Canada, Great Britain, Australia, South Africa and Southern Rhodesia, as well as the United States, were entered in the Mayleigh Cup Match.

The unusual awards ceremony conducted by the NRA came on the last day of pistol competition.

After the last shot was fired the Michigan State Pistol Association team was honored and presented individual and team awards for having won the annual South Africa Invitational Pistol Postal Team Match.

This event is fired between teams from the South African Pistol & Revolver Association and NRA State Association teams.

Woodson D. Scott, President of the NRA, presented the team trophy to Mrs. Marge Anderson, Battle Creek, Mich., Vice President of the Michigan State Pistol Association.

The ceremony was witnessed by the more than 600 competitors in the National Trophy match as it was held immediately behind the 50-yard line.

Kladis Wins

as the points won Friday at Waukegan count toward the Midwest Hidget Championship.

Sixteen of the top midgets in this part of the country took the green flag for the start of the 40 lap event. Willis moved into the lead from his outside starting position with Mike Adams of Crest Hill and Gene Varing of Oak Long running second and third. By the 10th lap Willis had a 15 car length lead over Varing and Kladis. In the 26th lap Kladis finally got past Varing after a number of wheel-to-wheel duels and once in second began to close the gap on Willis.

Willis slipped coming out of the second turn on the 35th lap and Kladis shot into the lead after the two had run side-by-side for several laps. The only caution flag came in the 37th lap as Varing and five other cars spun on the backstretch. Bill Krueger of Lombard ran third.

The semi-feature was another close race as two of the 10 starters would qualify for the feature. John Lode of Elmwood Park won the race after Bruce Field of Lockport had actually taken the lead on the outside in the closing laps. Field did better in the main, taking 8th while Lode was the first dropout.

With such a large field a consolation race was run with Mike Gall of Wilmington beating 12 others in an event which required three yellow flags and saw two early leaders. Jim Hill of Des Plaines and Bob McGee of Joliet drop completely out while in front.

The second heat was a rough affair with Phil Stebbins of New Lenox spinning early and finally four of the leaders tangling right behind Kladis in the final laps.

Eighteen-Year-Olds May Register To Vote In Illinois

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott has told the Secretary of State and all county clerks in Illinois to register 18-year-olds to vote.

Attorney General Scott said the new federal voting law should be presumed valid in which case 18-year olds will be eligible to vote in Illinois elections after Jan. 1, 1971 the date specified in the new law.

Eighteen-year-olds will not be eligible to vote in this November general election, nor on the proposed new Illinois Constitution if the Illinois Constitution which establishes 21 as the age of eligibility to vote. The Secretary of State also asked if 18-year-olds would be eligible to vote in all elections.

Scott's ruling was requested by Secretary of State Paul Powell who asked the Attorney General if the new federal law supersedes the Illinois Constitution which establishes 21 as the age of eligibility to vote. The Secretary of State also asked if 18-year-olds would be eligible to vote in all elections.

In a third question, Powell requested Scott's ruling on a conflict between the voter's residence requirements of the new federal law, and those in the Illinois Constitution. The federal law requires only 30-day residence as a pre-condition for voting for U. S. President and Vice President.

Scott's opinion replied: "Eligibility to vote at age 18, and the 30-day residence as a pre-condition to voting for the offices of President and Vice President, which are found in the new federal law, are inconsistent with the present Illinois age and residence requirements. It was clearly the intention of Congress that these new age and residence requirements supersede existing state laws, and the July 16, 1970 letter from Attorney General Mitchell to Governor Ogilvie presages a vigorous implementation of that point of view."

The Attorney General's opinion pointed out that the power of the federal government to legislate the requirements for eligibility to vote is now in litigation pending in the U. S. Supreme Court and in federal courts in two states, and "should soon be resolved."

Because of the pending litigation, and because the new federal voting law does not take effect until on or after January 1, 1971, "any registration applications before January 1, 1971 from those persons 18 years of age or over who will be 18 years of age or over at the time of the next election to be held on or after January 1, 1971 must be accepted subject to these qualifications, and provided such persons are otherwise qualified to vote at such election," the opinion states.

"For these reasons plus the fact that litigation now pending shrouds the questions here discussed in an aura of uncertainty, those accepting registration of 18-year-olds should keep such registrations readily separable from the regular list."

Name Pendrick To Chairman Scout Night

KENOSHA—John Pendrick of American Motors has been named chairman and Donald R. Eells of the Kenosha Unified School District vice-chairman of "school-night for scouting" to be held in Kenosha County Sept. 24.

Pendrick is General Superintendent, Engine Division at AMC and a long-time scouting enthusiast, while Eells is principal at Lance Junior High School and a Scout Council Commissioner.

"School Night for Scouting" is a national annual scout event when schools are opened for one hour to give boys from the third grade up an opportunity to hear the scout story from local leaders and join the program. Virtually all public and parochial elementary schools in the county—some 49—will be open from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Sept. 24 for the meetings.

Last year, about 700 boys enrolled in scouting and 300 adult scout volunteers were recruited at the Kenosha County programs. Pendrick said boys and their parents can participate in the program at any of the participating schools.

"If there is anything predictable in these unpredictable times," Pendrick said, "it is that a boy becomes a man in shorter time than we realize. As parents, we often awaken to find that we really didn't get to know our son and learn to do things with him. The Boy Scouts of America has a proven program, specifically designed for parents and their sons, which has been successfully tested for over 60 years."

Petersen Foundation Gives Grant

The Esper A. Petersen Foundation in 1968, prior to the establishment of the College of Lake County District, committed itself to donate $100,000 to the college if and when such a college became a reality.

The Petersen Foundation was established "for the improvement of social conditions and to advance good will among men through education."

In an early communication, Esper A. Petersen, then Secretary of the Foundation, stated, "In view of the interest that a large number of Lake County residents have shown for the establishment of a junior college . . . we think of our democratic society's responsibility to provide, as far as possible, college education to our youth to the extent of each person's ability."

"Therefore, if the residents of Lake County decide to build a junior college in the Lake County area, if and when such a college has become a reality within the next three years, then this Foundation herewith commits itself to contribute $100,000 to the college to be used . . . in the best interest of the college."

In a simple presentation which took place in the college Learning Resource Center, representatives of the Petersen Foundation presented the college with the $100,000 donation and designated that the funds be used for the purchase of library books. The college will identify the books with a special name plate and designate an area in the Learning Resource Center in memory of Esper A. Petersen.

Dr. Richard Erzen, President of the College of Lake County, in commenting on this civic-minded gesture, stated, "The college is delighted to accept this money for library books as the library is the heart of the educational program and is of extreme importance to all facets of the college. Mr. Petersen had an interest in good books, and the college feels that this is a fitting memorial to this prominent citizen of Lake County."

Presenting the gift in the name of the foundation were Mrs. Esper Petersen, Esper A. Petersen, Jr., Ed Petersen, and Miss Berntha Matthews, President of the Foundation. Accepting were F. James Lumber, Mrs. Thelma Sandee, Charles Neal, and Theodore Paxton, members of the Board of Trustees and Dr. Richard Erzen, Dr. S. Robert Hoekstra, Dr. Russell Bloyer, and Peter Bakas, administrative personnel of the college. Also present was Mrs. Anne Marie Allison, librarian, and many friends and supporters of the institution.

Ray Young Champion At 1970 Waukegan Speedway

Ray Young will be the 1970 Waukegan Speedway champion. The Dolton driver clinched his second consecutive title on the Waukegan asphalt with a 4th place finish in the 50 lap Labor Day race held Saturday. Sunday's races were cancelled by the rain.

While Young has the title in hand, Jim Cossman of Waukegan and Bob May of Gurnee still have at least five more programs to decide who will rank second. These two collided and ended up on top of the pit wall in the big race Saturday. Cossman recovered to finish 7th, but May was out after 19 laps and finished last.

Fourth place is still in question as Lee Schuler of Lockport, Bob Anzinger of McHenry and Vern Browne of Wauconda are separated by only 17 points. Anzinger turned in an impressive win over Browne in the 50 lapper with Schuler 6th.

The hobby division also has a close battle with rookie Tom Oliver of Zion holding a 19 point edge over last year's champion, Tom Reuss of Wildwood. Chuck Chadwick of Lake Zurich and Floyd Burdick of Racine now rank 5th and 7th after feature race wins on Friday and Saturday. George Kladis of Chicago won the special 40 lap U.A.R.A. midget race Friday as 41 cars representing five states were on hand.

This weekend will see two more night programs with the late models and hobby stocks racing on both Saturday and Sunday nights. There will be 30 lap features both nights with a powder puff derby added Sunday.

Saturday night racing will also continue Sept. 19th and 26th with the 50 lap season's championship race slated for the 26th. The first afternoon race at Waukegan since 1963 will be run Sunday, Sept. 20, with late models, hobby stocks and a demolition derby. Time trials will start at 1:00 with the first race at 2 p.m.
